Description of Change:

Sharp is adding an additional printed circuit board vendor (Tripod Technology Co., Ltd., UL number E187565) for these parts, to assure stable supplies of product. They will continue to meet all Specifications for optical, mechanical, electrical, lifetime, and RoHS Certification. This change will be phased into normal production during September 2008.

Effect of Change:

Sharp's addition of a backlight vendor during production in September 2008 does not change the lifetime, optical, reliability, quality, mechanical, electrical, or RoHS specifications for these parts.
